(2) The expansion project in an eligible area shall be entitled to the incentives under sub-rule (1) on the incremental production only and a separate account of incremental production resulting from such expansion shall mandatorily be maintained.

EXPLANATION: 'Incremental Production' in relation to an expansion project shall mean production over and above either the installed capacity or actual production before such expansion, whichever is more."

Illustration:

1. If the date of commencement of incentive for the eligible unit is 01.04.2014 and the unit before expansion is having an average quarterly production of 100,000/- units of the product over the last 2 years and the installed quarterly capacity is 90,000/- units of the product. If such a unit, after expansion, produces 1,20,000/- units per quarter, then the incremental production in the quarter will be taken as 20,000/- units of the product.

2. If the date of commencement of incentive for the eligible unit is 01.04.2014 and the unit before expansion is having an quarterly production of 100,000/- units of the product over the last 2 years and the installed quarterly capacity is 1,10,000/- units of the product. If such a unit, after expansion, produces 1, 20, 000/- units per quarter, then the incremental production in the quarter will be taken as 10,000/- units of the product.

(3) The quantum of incentives availed by an expansion project during a period shall be calculated at the prevalent rates of tax payable under the Acts on the taxable turnover in respect of the incremental production of the concerned expansion project subject to sub-rule (1).

5. Mode of availing tax incentives.- (1) An eligible unit shall make an application to the competent authority for the grant of Eligibility Certificate for availing tax incentives. On receipt of the application, the competent authority shall refer the matter to the Interdepartmental Committee for the purpose of determination of Fixed Capital Investment.

(2) The Interdepartmental Committee shall determine the actual Fixed Capital Investment after taking into account the project appraisal report of the Bank or Financial Institution, certificate of Chartered Accountant, invoices of the purchases of capital goods and the industry norms regarding capital investment etc.

(3) Since the total Fiscal incentives cannot be more than 100% of the Fixed Capital Investment, therefore, the eligible unit shall inform the competent authority about the quantum of tax incentives it wants to claim, subject to the aforesaid cap of total Fiscal incentives.

(4) Keeping in view the provisions of rule 4 and sub-rules (2) and (3) of this rule, the competent authority shall quantify tax incentives and issue an Eligibility Certificate to the eligible unit.

6. Conditions regarding availability of input tax credit to a person purchasing goods from a unit availing incentive scheme,-

(a) The unit availing incentives shall issue a VAT invoice/ Retail invoice, as the case may be, as is issued by a unit which is not availing incentive scheme. The provisions regarding availability of input tax credit as applicable to person purchasing goods from a unit which is not availing incentive scheme shall apply mutatis mutandis to a person purchasing goods from a unit availing incentive scheme:

Provided that if the goods sold by a unit availing incentive scheme on VAT invoice are subsequently sold or used in manufacturing, processing or packing of goods for sale, by a taxable person in the course of inter-state trade or commerce or in the course of export outside India, that taxable person shall be entitled to claim input tax credit only to the extent of tax actually deposited by the unit availing the incentives, in the State Treasury.

- (b) Minimum period required for availing benefit of incentives,-
- (i) if the unit availing the benefit of incentives dis-continues its business before the expiry of the incentive period or before the exhaustion of the incentive limit granted, it shall be liable to deposit the entire amount of incentives availed into the Government Treasury along with interest compounded annually @ 18% per annum; and
 - (ii) the unit availing incentive shall be required to continue its operations till it pays into the Treasury, a cumulative tax amount equal to at least 50% of the amount of incentives availed. If any unit closes its business before the happening of such an event, it shall be liable to deposit the differential amount of incentive availed and the cumulative amount of tax paid into the Government treasury alongwith interest compounded annually @ 18% per annum.

7. Withdrawal of Incentives.- The entire tax incentives granted in respect of an eligible unit, including the availed amount shall be liable to be withdrawn by the Commissioner, if it is found that.-

- (i) the Eligibility Certificate has been obtained by fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, mis-statement or concealment of any material fact; or
- (ii) the unit availing incentives has indulged in any type of malpractice like bogus billing, bogus claim of input tax credit; or
- (iii) the unit has concealed any particulars from any return furnished by him; or
- (iv) the unit has deliberately furnished incorrect particulars therein; or
- (v) the unit has concealed any transactions of sale or purchase from his account books; or
- (vi) the unit has not maintained intelligible accounts, which prevent the

Commissioner or the designated officer to assess the tax due from him; or

- (vii) the unit has availed input tax credit to which he is not entitled to; or
- (viii) the unit has claimed refund which was not due to him; or
- (ix) the unit has claimed credit in respect of tax, which was not actually paid,
- (x) the unit has not maintained true separate account of incremental production resulting from such expansion.

In addition, the Commissioner may direct that the person who has been found to be indulging in any of the above irregularities or malpractices, shall pay by way of penalty, a sum equal to twice the amount of incentive availed by him. The provisions of section 56 of the Punjab Value Added Tax Act, 2005, shall also be applicable to such person. However, no order shall be passed by the Commissioner without affording opportunity of being heard.

8. Filing of returns.- (1) The unit holding Eligibility Certificate shall continue to file the returns in the manner as provided under the Acts and the rules made there under.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the unit holding Eligibility Certificate, shall attach an attested copy of the Eligibility Certificate and Treasury Receipts as proof of payment of amount of tax, which is outside the incentive scheme, alongwith the return. Such a unit shall continue to do so till the incentive is fully availed of or the period of incentive under these rules, expires, whichever is earlier.

9. Assessment of tax.- (1) The assessment of an eligible unit in respect of which an Eligibility Certificate has been granted shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Acts and the rules made thereunder, but it shall preferably be made within a period of one year from the date of filing of the annual statement or due to be filed, whichever is earlier. The additional demand so determined, if any, shall be paid into the Government Treasury as per the provisions of the Acts and the rules made thereunder.

(2) If an order of withdrawal of the incentives is passed before the Eligibility Certificate is due for expiry, the entire amount of tax incentive availed by the unit shall become payable immediately in lump-sum and the provisions relating to recovery of tax, interest and penalty, if any, under the Acts, shall be applicable in such cases. The provisions of section 35 of the Punjab Value Added Tax Act, 2005 shall also apply mutatis mutandis regarding recovery of tax, interest and penalty due under these rules concerning first charge of State on the property of the unit availing incentive.

10. Registers to be maintained by the Prescribed authority.- The prescribed authority shall maintain a register in respect of units availing incentive and entries regarding the grant of Eligibility Certificate shall be made in the register so maintained.

11. Settlement of disputes.- If any dispute arises regarding eligibility of the unit or the quantum of incentives to be granted, the matter shall be referred to the Financial Commissioner (Taxation), whose decision shall be final and binding on the unit.
